

Continued from Page Two.

varied trip through Canada, including the Lake of the Bays, Old Orchard, and Peterborough, as the guests of their son, Mr. Clarence Salter, who holds an important position as electrical engineer at the latter place.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Tobb will return to-day from a trip through Canada and the New England States, which included a visit to New York City.

Mrs. Amos Casselman and son, Elbridge, have gone to Boston by sea where young Casselman will enter upon a course in electrical engineering at the Massachusetts School of Technology.

Miss Mary Kearney is in Boston for a visit of several weeks with friends.

Mrs. Bleecker and daughter, Miss Mary Bleecker, and Mrs. Wheeler and daughter, Mrs. Wheeler, have returned from a visit to the Kenawau the latter part of the month.

Mr. John Mott Tyler and his daughter, Mrs. Carrie G. Armstrong, have returned from the Netherlands in an apartment in the Ontario for the winter.

John Tyler recently returned from a brief visit to his daughter, Mrs. William Marshall, at Warrenton, Va.

Mrs. Frank Powell, who has been the guest of Mrs. Alice Leggett for the past month at her home in Brightwood avenue, has returned to 302 P street.

Miss Ford has been spending a most enjoyable vacation in New England. She is pleasantly located at the Ontario for the winter.

Miss Margie Mitchell has returned to her home in P street, Georgetown, after an extended sojourn at the Virginia Springs. Miss Mitchell is expected home this week by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, who are in the city.

Mrs. Daniel Robner and family, of Thirty-fourth street, have returned from Orkney Springs, Va.

Miss Louise Arnold, accompanied by her niece, Miss Katherine Smith, left last week for Boston.

Miss Emma Rathbun Smith, who has been spending the summer in Canadian resorts, followed by a visit to her brother, William Dudley Smith, in Detroit, Mich., and later relatives in Columbus, Ohio, will return to town next week to locate at 1513 I street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Orme, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Hume, and family, have been summering at Cape May. They will return to "Evans" their home in Georgetown Heights, early in the week.

Miss Emma Niville is expected back at her home in Thirtieth street from a summer sojourn in her Georgetown home. This week's friends will be glad to learn that her health is entirely restored.

Mrs. John Rose Mazzurco, who has been absent for a year past in California, has returned to her home in the city. Mr. Walter Peters with the view of remaining West for another winter, much to the regret of a host of resident friends.

Mrs. Charles Shoemaker, of 212 P street, has returned with her infant son from an extended visit to her father, Mr. Elmhurst, in Pennsylvania avenue.

Mrs. Charles Nourse, of Thirtieth street, has returned from a visit to her sisters near Pomfret, Conn.

ANACOSTIA.

Mrs. Brian Downer, president of the Ladies' Benevolent Society of St. Teresa's Church in Anacostia, entertained the members of that body at her home, 1014 N street, last week in commemoration of the fourth anniversary of the organization of the society.

As soon as the Warton P. Brumister Company can secure the necessary submarine cable for the water from the excavations made, the work on the new interceptor sewer, to be constructed from Poplar Point to Benning, along the Anacostia side of the river, will be started. About $50,000 is now available, and with this amount the work can be completed as far as the Pennsylvania avenue bridge, allowing for the construction of a pumping station at a cost of about $10,000.

The final results of the annual Labor Day event at the German Opera House show that about $80 was cleared on that day, and same has been turned over to the treasurer for use in carrying on the work of the house. This was made known at a meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society held the past week at the home of good housewife, Mrs. Katherine Barthel in the chair. It was also announced that the annual election of officers would take place at the meeting to be held October 12.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tolson, of 227 Nichols avenue, Anacostia, have returned to their home, after passing the past four months at Piney Point, Md.

Dr. B. T. Woodward, president of the Randle Highlands Citizens' Association, and Secretary Riley, have been visiting in the suburbs of the city. They have completed a statement showing the improvements that were made the past year in the suburb, and were the direct result of the efforts of the association. They include many of interest, such as the extension of the water and gas mains in streets heretofore without that service; the erection of the $25,000 engine house in Minnesota avenue; the improvement of the sewerage system; the improvement of the streets; and the starting of work on the $50,000 school building in Pennsylvania avenue; the putting of additional cars on the line running to Seventeenth street and Pennsylvania avenue by the Capital Traction Company during the rush hours of the day; and the grading and improving of a number of streets in the suburbs. The association, according to the report, has done good work, and is now outlining a course to be followed during the winter months.

Dr. and Mrs. Heber C. Butts, of the Government Hospital for the Insane, have returned from a trip by motor to New England and points between.

Dr. R. A. Pyle, Mr. George Holmes, J. W. Bartley, and Mrs. E. H. Elliott, of Anacostia, have returned from Piney Point, Md., where they spent the past week on a fishing trip.

ROCKVILLE.

Miss Rachel Bell Higgins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Higgins, of Laytonville, and Mr. Dorsey Griffith, also of Laytonville, were married Thursday afternoon by Rev. W. T. Gover, at the Southern Methodist Church, Goshen, Va. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Corinne Higgins, an maid of honor, and Misses Mary Bell and Agnes Plummer, as bridesmaids. The bridegroom's best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Greenbury G. Griffith and George Plummer. Mrs. Mabel Russell Bess, of Baltimore, played the marches. A reception followed at the home of the bride, where luncheon was served to the bridal party immediately preceding the ceremony.

Thursday evening at the home of the bride, near Bethesda, Miss Clara Belle Besshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Besshaw, and Mr. Maurice Leonard Morrison, also of Bethesda, were married by Rev. Melvin G. Leaman, pastor of the Baptist church at Chevy Chase and Benne. Only relatives and close friends of the couple were present. The bride was attended by Miss Leila Morrison, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor, and the bride's brother, Mr. William M. Besshaw, was best man.

Miss Marie Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Ray, of Laytonville, and Mr. William Thompson, of Edinburg, were married Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride, by Rev. James E. James, pastor of the Laytonville M. E. church. The bride was attended by Miss Leila Morrison, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor, and the bride's brother, Mr. Lawrence Thompson, of Edinburg, was best man. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, where luncheon was served to the guests.

At 7 o'clock Tuesday evening, at the home of the bride near Edinburg, Miss Elsie Thompson, daughter of Mrs. Amanda C. Thompson, and Mr. George F. Brown, of Edinburg, were married by Rev. Dr. Spencer, pastor of the M. E. Church at Burtonville. The maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Beulah Thompson. The bride was attended by Miss Beulah Thompson, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor, and the bride's brother, Mr. Lawrence Thompson, of Edinburg, was best man. A reception followed, Mr. and Mrs. Brown leaving later for their honeymoon trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Burruss have returned from their honeymoon and are guests of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vieth, for a few days.

Miss Margaret Lydane, of Germantown, has returned to her home after spending two weeks at Atlantic City.

Mrs. E. H. Donnelly and Mr. and Mrs. William J. Donnelly, of Washington, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Lydane, near Germantown.

Mrs. William E. Penn and son, of Chesapeake City, Md., are visiting Rev. and Mrs. S. R. White, in Rockville.

Miss Madeleine Hoge has returned to Rockville after spending several weeks visiting in Western Pennsylvania.

Dr. and Mrs. George E. Lewis have returned from Atlantic City.

Mrs. Robert B. Porter and child have returned to Cuba, where Mr. Porter is engaged in military work, after having spent several weeks in Rockville visiting Mrs. Porter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Haney.

Miss Anna Luthum, of Richmond, Va., is visiting Mrs. Charles N. Elkhorn, at Gaithersburg.

Mrs. Mary B. Prescott and Mrs. E. H. Able have returned to Rockville after spending two months visiting in Delaware.

After spending the summer in Rockville, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard L. Nicholson, Jr., have returned to Washington.

LAUREL.

Miss Mary Ethel Gwynne has returned from Hyattsville, where she has been visiting the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. L. Latimer.

Mr. Norman Clarke, after spending the summer in Philadelphia, has returned to Laurel.

Dr. R. H. Sadler and son, Bert, are visiting Mr. Sadler's brother in Harewood, Md.

Mrs. John W. Williams has returned from a visit to her sister in Baltimore.

Mr. Hugh Clarkson is the guest of Mr. James Ross.

Miss Maudie Jones, of Elliott City, Md., was the guest of Miss Lila Stanley this week.

Miss Edith Stanley has returned to her home in Lynchburg, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Stanley, Miss Iola Stanley, and Rev. Mr. Snyder, of Georgetown, visited friends in Gaithersburg, Md., on Tuesday.

Mrs. Lawrence Reese and mother, Mrs. Thomas L. Reese, were the guests last week of Mrs. D. W. Snowden, North Laurel.

Mrs. Harder and Miss Wood, of Baltimore, have been the guests of the Misses Stewart.

Miss Rosalind Curtin has returned from Annapolis.

Miss Marjorie Fisher has returned from a visit to Pennsylvania.

Miss Beulah Gardner has returned to Laurel after her vacation.

Mrs. George Waters, Jr., has returned from a visit of some weeks to Emory Grove, Md.

Mrs. Lawrence Reese and mother, Mrs. Thomas L. Reese, were the guests last week of Mrs. D. W. Snowden, North Laurel.

Mrs. Harder and Miss Wood, of Baltimore, have been the guests of the Misses Stewart.

Miss Rosalind Curtin has returned from Annapolis.

Miss Marjorie Fisher has returned from a visit to Pennsylvania.

Miss Beulah Gardner has returned to Laurel after her vacation.

Mrs. George Waters, Jr., has returned from a visit of some weeks to Emory Grove, Md.

Mrs. Lawrence Reese and mother, Mrs. Thomas L. Reese, were the guests last week of Mrs. D. W. Snowden, North Laurel.

Mrs. Harder and Miss Wood, of Baltimore, have been the guests of the Misses Stewart.

Miss Rosalind Curtin has returned from Annapolis.

Miss Marjorie Fisher has returned from a visit to Pennsylvania.

Miss Beulah Gardner has returned to Laurel after her vacation.

Mrs. George Waters, Jr., has returned from a visit of some weeks to Emory Grove, Md.

Mrs. Lawrence Reese and mother, Mrs. Thomas L. Reese, were the guests last week of Mrs. D. W. Snowden, North Laurel.

at the Hyatt Mansion as the guests of Mrs. Henry C. Dobbs, have returned to Washington for the winter.

Prof. and Mrs. R. H. Kerr and son left yesterday for Belvedere, N. J., where they will spend three weeks as the guests of Mrs. Kerr's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Hill and family, Wine avenue, have returned from a stay of several weeks with friends in Anne Arundel County.

Mrs. Gwynn, of Spartanburg, S. C., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. L. Bowie, at "Northtown."

Mrs. P. E. Du Pual and Miss Marion Du Pual are spending the week at the Hill Top House, Harpers Ferry, W. Va.

Mrs. Fred Wilson and children have returned from Washington, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Ignatius Valley, parents of Mrs. Wilson.

Mrs. John Lowe and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lowe have been visiting Mrs. Maurice Lowe in Philadelphia.

Miss Janet Maunday has returned to her home at "Seven Oaks," after spending several weeks with friends in Baltimore, Md.

Dr. Louis W. Engster has returned to his home after a two months' vacation spent at Canby Bay, Me., and one week at Frederick, Md., where Mrs. Engster and daughter Elizabeth still remain. They will return the latter part of next week.

Miss Eva Burrell is spending a week in Charlottesville, Va., with Miss Lucille Palmer at the home of Arthur Novin, brother of Composer Ethelbert Novin.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Littlepage and family have reopened their home in Norfolk place, after spending two months in Evansville, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Wales, of Newark street, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son.

Mrs. Horace Beall and children have returned to their home after the summer, spent in Connas, Md.

Mrs. Maunday has left her home in Lowell street for a two-weeks' visit in Bay Head, N. J.

Miss Elizabeth Bradfield, of the Cathedral School for Boys, has returned to the school from a visit of several weeks in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. P. Hugg have returned and opened their home in Newark and Thirtieth streets, after spending the summer at York Beach and Spring Lake.

Mrs. Ralph Kirkham left Saturday for a two weeks' visit in New England.

Mrs. J. Murray Burrell entertained guests at a luncheon on Thursday. The guests included Mrs. Dunstan, Mrs. Triller, Mrs. Woodard, Miss Wentworth, Mrs. Hugg, Mrs. Shaw, and Mrs. Van Buren.

Miss Margaret Evans returns today from a three weeks' visit with relatives in Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Reinold and son, after having made their home in Cleveland Park for several years, have moved to a country home near Laurel, Md.

Miss Ella Rogers entertained the St. Alban's Choir Chapter Wednesday evening at her home, 364 Wisconsin avenue. There was a short business meeting, at which Mrs. Earl Clark was elected secretary in the place of Miss Henckels, who is leaving town, followed by a social evening.

Mr. W. C. Shaw has returned from a business trip in Europe.

Mrs. Howard Taylor and family have returned from a summer's outing at Mountain Lake Park.

There was a meeting of the Cleveland Park Athletic Club Monday evening at the home of Mr. William Upton in Newark street. The members of the club are making final preparations for a housewarming reception, which they will give in the Park lodge, Connecticut avenue and Newark street, having procured the lodge as a clubhouse.

Mr. Mac Baker left for Princeton University on Wednesday to take final examination for entrance.

Miss Dorothy Taylor is spending several days with her friend, Carrie Loudan. Mrs. Harris and sons Ned and Henry have returned the Cathedral School for Boys, after spending the summer in the South.

Mr. E. L. Gregg, headmaster of the Cathedral School for Boys, is in Chicago on business pertaining to the school.

Leut. Ricker, U. S. A., retired, is to be the head teacher of mathematics at the Cathedral School for Boys. Leut. and Mrs. Ricker are to reside in Wisconsin avenue, in the neighborhood of the school.

ALEXANDRIA.

Mrs. Louis Greene and her children returned last week from Woodberry Forest, where they spent the summer, and are now the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Julian T. Burke.

Mrs. C. E. Stiel and the Misses Nicol, who spent the summer at Manassas, have returned to their home in this city.

Miss Elena Norris has returned from a visit to Mrs. J. W. White at Richmond, where she spent several weeks.

Miss Susie Fawcett left last Thursday for a stay at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Lillie Riley and her son, Master Herman Riley, who have been visiting relatives in this city, have returned to their home at Fairfax Court House.

Mrs. C. W. Bell and children have returned from a visit to Orange, where they spent some time.

Mrs. Charles Kramer has returned from a visit to Philadelphia, New York, Providence, and Newport.

Mrs. William Headon and Miss Katharine Headon left on Tuesday for Washington, where they will reside in the future.

Miss Anne Lewis Jones returned on Monday from a visit to Miss Barbara Campbell at her home in Charleston, W. Va.

Miss Rebecca Powell, who has been spending the summer in Gloucester County, is now the guest of the Misses Marye in Queen street.

Miss Florence Anderson returned last week from a visit to relatives in Philadelphia and Baltimore.

Mrs. W. H. Yates, Master Bernard, and Little Miss Margaret Yates have returned from Orange, where they spent the summer.

Mrs. Carroll Pierce returned last week from a visit to Rochester, N. Y.

Miss Virginia Bennett has returned to her home in this city from Portsmouth, Va., where she spent the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Young left Monday for Niagara Falls, Buffalo, and points in Canada.

Mr. Charles A. Cogan has returned from a visit to Mountain Lake Park, Md.

Mrs. J. J. Birell, Mrs. C. L. Polmar, Mrs. Mary Tice, and Mr. Harvey Tice, of Philadelphia, left last week for Alexandria, City and New York.

Miss Carrie Lunnham, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. E. E. Greene.

Mrs. Dempsey, wife of Col. Dempsey, U. S. A., retired, was the guest of friends in Alexandria during the past week. Col. and Mrs. Dempsey make their home in Richmond.

Mr. John Beckham left last week for Baltimore, and will return by way of steamer.

Mrs. Elias Greenough and Miss Daisy Johnson, who have spent the summer with Mr. Slaughter on Seminary Hill, will return on Monday to be the guests of Miss Mary Johnson in Prince street.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Jamison have returned from a visit to the coast of Maine.

Mrs. William Lovejoy, the Misses Caroline and Ben Hland Lovejoy returned last Monday from Charlottesville, where they spent the summer.

Mrs. Charles Creighton Carlin and Master Charles C. Carlin returned last week from a visit to Justice and Mrs. Louis C. Carlin at their country home in Bath County.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Mr. Percy L. Kise and Miss Emma V. Groves, both of Washington.

on September 7, at the parsonage of Trinity M. E. Church, this city, by the pastor, Rev. G. A. Lutzell.

Miss Jane Collins left on Thursday to visit relatives in the South.

Mrs. Brook Arnold, Jr., who has been visiting friends in Harrisonburg, has returned to her home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Gorman have returned home from their wedding trip.

Mrs. Cassius P. Lee returned last week from Warrenton, where she spent the summer.

Miss Louise Payne, of Lynchburg, who is visiting Mrs. Julia Carter in Loudoun County, will later be the guest of Mrs. Phineas J. Dempsey.

Mr. Mahlon Janney returned last week from Elkton, where he spent several weeks.

Miss Hattie Bolling Douglas, who has been visiting friends in Warrenton, has returned to her home in this city.

Miss Watts Blackburn has returned from Berryville, where she spent the summer.

Miss Mary Gaines, daughter of Mr. John Gaines, has gone to Niagara Falls and other points of interest in Western New York.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Bartlett left on Thursday to spend a week with Mrs. Bartlett's sister, Mrs. W. J. Santer, in New York City.

Mrs. Rose Downey, formerly of Fairfax County, will make Alexandria her future home, having taken a house in Prince and St. Asaph streets.

Mrs. Henry Robertson, of Washington, was the guest of friends in this city during the past week.

Miss Esther Dashiels Burke returned last week from Woodberry Forest, where she spent the summer.

Miss Natalie Norton, who has spent several weeks at Markham, has returned to her home in this city.

Mrs. William Wattles and her children returned last week from Berryville, where they spent the summer.

Mr. James H. Price, of Richmond, was the guest of friends in this city during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter Thornton, of Del Ray, have gone on an extended trip through the South, and will also visit Mrs. Thornton's old home in Tennessee.

Miss Leslie Hale Baggert returned last Tuesday from an extended trip in the North.

Mrs. J. M. Wicks, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. E. Gorman, has returned to her home in New York. Messrs. W. E. and C. B. Swan have gone to New York to spend several days.

Mrs. William Hodges and children, of Savannah, Ga., who have been the guests for the past two weeks of Mrs. Nicholas Duwess, on Seminary Hill, left on Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. William Gibson Pendleton, at Eastville, Va.

Mrs. Sarah Harris has returned to her home in Berryville, where she spent the summer.

Miss Cora Jones returned last Monday from Warrenton, where she spent several weeks.

Miss Winnie Cox, of Rosemont, was informally at home to a number of friends on Friday evening.

Mrs. R. D. Stansbury left Monday for Baltimore to attend the wedding of her niece, Miss Adele Lockerman, to Prof. F. L. Henry, of Tulane Institute, Port Deposit, Md.

Mr. J. W. Goran has gone to visit his daughter at North Garden, Va.

Mr. Albert Magalis, of Roanoke, was the guest of friends in this city during the past week.

Mrs. Ellen Lindsey and her granddaughter, Miss Katherine Quinn, have gone to Indian Head, Md.

Mrs. Francis H. Evans, of Richmond, who has been spending the summer at Warrenton, and her daughter, Miss Sallie Cornington Evans, who has returned from a trip to Europe, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Warren Anderson.

Mrs. John Harlow and Mrs. Martin Greene have returned from a visit to Atlantic City.

The wedding of Miss Sallie Agnes Harlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Harlow, of this city, and Mr. Francis Reptil Waller, of Washington, will take place on Thursday, September 21, at noon.

Last Saturday night a large party of young people, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. William Melchior and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Howell went on a moonlight straw

ACTRESSES' BEST JUDGES

LAURA NELSON HALL.

Playing the principal role in "Every Woman," has the following to say: "Willard White Co. Gentleman-Your Melrose Face Powder, Rouge, and Beauty Cream is the most delightful I have ever used. I will never be without the Melrose preparations. Yours truly, (Signed) LAURA NELSON HALL."

MORE LEADING ACTRESSES USE Melrose Beauty Specialties

Than Any Other Skin Preparations.

Words of praise for "Melrose" from Chicago's most beautiful society woman. She, like thousands of others, thinks there is nothing in the way of powder and cream as good as "Melrose." Willard White Company, Chicago, Ill., Aug. 21, 1911.

Genial—I have used Melrose Face Powder, Rouge, and Beauty Cream in the most delightful way. I have never been so satisfied with the Melrose preparations. Yours truly, (Signed) CLARA STORER, 309 E. 54th St., Chicago, Ill.

MELROSE BEAUTY CREAM

The perfect Cleansing and Massage Cream, has no equal; excellent for the complexion, freckles, tan, wrinkles, pimples, blackheads, chapped hands or face, etc. Does not grow hair or turn rancid, and has a very delicate odor suggestive of fresh flowers, deifies sun, wind, and dust. Size, 4 oz. only 45c.

Melrose Rouge

Unlike and superior to any other, won't rub off, does not bleed, perfect, harmonious, perfect color, more in pity and powdered form, a little more than some others, but is worth it. Size, 4 oz. only 45c.

Melrose Face Powder

The perfection of toilet duties, one of the very few powders that are not harmful to the skin. Melrose improves the complexion and protects the skin from heat, cold, wind, dust, etc. as well as a fine veil, particularly when dusted on the face over a small amount of Melrose. It is the most perfect "finishing" the skin that makes you best groomed.

Melrose Nail Polish

In the latest and best. Polishes the nails almost instantly; at the same time giving the nail a perfect, lasting tint. Easily applied. Price, 25c.

We Respectfully Recommend Willard White Co.'s World Famous

VAUCAIRE Tablets, box $1.89c

This preparation is highly recommended by Mme. De Le Vie and all great beauty authorities as a Bust Developer, Flesh Builder, and Tonic.

(TRADE MARK) Write to Willard White Co., Chicago, Ill. Sold by LANSBURGH & BRO., 420 to 426 7th St. Toilet Goods Department.

ride to the Howell farm. The affair was complimentary to Rev. Joseph H. Sever and Mrs. Sever, of Augusta, Ga., who are visiting in this city. Rev. John Lee Allison, of Tennessee, the new rector, was also a guest of honor. Later in the evening a supper was served, and a band of big bonfire the evening closed with songs and stories.